Dear Mr. Powell,

Sorry I wasn't able to respond to your 2/10 earlier.

Enclosed is a list of our available books, with costs.

We also have a few of the out-of-print copies of Oswald in New Orleans, which I didn't publish, @ $25.00, including mailing.

You ask whether more than one assassin requires a single conspiracy or if there could have been separate and independent conspiracies.

I think it is entirely unlikely that more than one band of conspirators could or would have selected the same spot and time for execution.

I know of no factual basis for any such conjecture, either.

Thanks for your kind comments.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
